NATIVE FORCES ARE ARMING

To Resist the Russian Soldiery at the Instigation of the Japanese
Regular Troops

INFLECT SEVERE DEFEAT ON RUSSIAN OUTPOST

Russian Land Troops are Pushing Forward Towards the Fighting Lines.
Instances of Horrible Russian Brutality. Are Decapitating Their Prisoners. Trouble Will ensue if Turkey allows Russia to Use the Dardanelles.

[BULLETIN SPECIAL WAR SERVICE.]

Rival Forces Face to Face.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—The news that the Japanese general staff has arrived at Chemulpo, has been received here. This, coupled with the advices that General Mstislenski in command of the Russian land forces was within a few miles of Shio Yang yesterday, brings the rival forces practically face to face in northern Korea. This has led to persistent rumours that a land battle had been fought.

Reports of Japanese Defeat

These reports, though unconfirmed, are that the Japanese met an overwhelming defeat. The absence of news from the front has increased the apprehension here as to what has happened. The foreign office has been besieged by anxious people inquiring for details and confirmation of the reports.

Moving Forward to Battle

The latest advices are that Russia has more than forty thousand men massed for battle not more than twenty miles from Ping Yang, while one hundred thousand Japanese troops are moving north from Seoul to meet the Russians.

Too Good to be True

London, March 2.—A rumor was circulated in the lobby of the House of Commons this afternoon that Port Arthur had fallen. The origin of the rumor could not be traced and no confirmation whatever was obtainable.

A Chance for Trouble

Constantinople, March 2.—The Turkish government has determined to forcibly prevent the Black Sea fleet from passing through the Dardanelles and a fight will probably occur should such an attempt be made. The defences along the straits have been strengthened and mines laid. England has informed the Sultan that should Russian vessels pass through the straits, the British fleet would do likewise.

Troops in Terrible Condition.

New York, March 2.—"Reports received here," says a cable to the World from St. Petersburg, "are that the troops along the route to Harbin show a disheartening condition of affairs. A smallpox epidemic is raging in east Siberia, and has spread among the regiments, vaccination being unheard of in the army. Pneumonia and bronchitis are claiming many, and already thousands of men have been rendered unfit for service by frost bites."

Russian Reverse

New York, March 3.—A cable received by the World states that a band of 500 Chuchus, armed with modern rifles, attacked the Russian out post at Palerheotze, near where there is a Russian garrison. Of the out post of fifty men forty-two were killed or wounded. The brigands lost eighty-seven among whom were six Japanese.

Japs Behind it All

London, March 3.—The fact that Japanese were found among the wounded bandits indicates that a serious danger is confronting the Russians. This would tend to show that the Japanese are organizing the bands.

In a State of Siege.

Port Arthur, March 3.—The region traversed by the East Chinese Railroad and the Blagovestch, Trans-Baikal and Amur territories; have been declared in a state of siege.

Russian Vladivostok Admiral Superseded

Captain Reitzensten, in command of the Askold, takes command of the Vladivostok squadron, replacing Admiral Stackelberg who has retired ill.

Russians Forging Ahead

New York, March 3.—A correspondent of the American from Ping Yang cables: "The Russians are boldly and fiercely pushing forward their advances south of the Yalu river. The cossacks are scouting far in advance of the main body through northern Korea."

Russian Land Force

"Three hundred Russians have seized Angu. There has been no attempt by the Japs as yet to dislodge the daring advance guards of the Russians at Angu. How far behind the Russian advance is the main body is not known here but fleeing Koreans declare the invaders are in great force. The Koreans make no effort to check the Russian advance but regard the invaders as desperate enemies."

Horrible Cruelty

New York, March 3.—The American publishes the following despatch. The city of Tien Shin is again like a slaughter house. Headless bodies are everywhere. The decapitations continue with sickening frequency. This killing is the result of the fierce efforts of the Viceroy of Chili to prevent an outbreak directed at Russia by agitators, but which if not put down in summary fashion would be disastrous to all foreigners.

STREET RAILWAY.

Editor "Bulletin."

As the time is drawing near when the ratification of the provisional contract, made by the Town Council with Mr. Tretheway for the sale to him of the Edmonton Street Railway franchise, is to be submitted to a vote of the ratepayers, I wish to impress upon your readers a point of view regarding the matter which, to the best of my recollection of this public meeting, was not brought to the attention of the meeting by any speaker.

What is the great need for haste in this matter? Is there any good reason why at least three months more should not be allowed for calm and careful consideration?

Why should the Town Council appear to think that Mr. Tretheway is the only capitalist who could be induced to take hold of and handle the franchise?

It seems to me, and to many others that the Town Council, in giving immediate consideration to Mr. Tretheway's proposal and in taking no steps to ascertain if others could be found who would take the franchise on better terms, have been entirely blind to the true interests of the town.

The Council should have first made some careful estimate of the possible earning powers of the suburban lines permitted by the charter, and should have laid down as a fixed preliminary condition of any agreement with any company that the franchise, both as to urban and suburban lines, should be kept and considered as one franchise, there being no rational reason for separation.

The next axiom with which they should start is that whatever be the details of the agreement, the ultimate restoration to the Town of Edmonton of the whole franchise, on suitable terms and after the lapse of a certain number of years, should be insisted upon in any event. The Council should have formulated for themselves a contract in the interests of the town, providing for all points in which the interests of the town might suffer, and fixing unquestionable and ample security for the carrying out of the construction of the road, the payment of fixed proportions of earnings to the town and for the ultimate reversioning of the town of the whole property and franchise granted to the company.

Having thus in quickness and peace, undisturbed by the demands and claims of a capitalist, who is certainly not making his proposition from a philanthropic point of view, fully considered the subject they would then stand in a position to say to Mr. Tretheway and to any other capitalist who might feel inclined to take the franchise "Such and such are the terms and the only terms on which the town is prepared to give the franchise to a company." The discussion would from that stage take the much more creditable form of the capitalist seeking to obtain better terms from the town, instead of the town being coaxed and bluffed into a very, very feeble resistance to the rapacious demands of the capitalist. It is the town which should dictate to the capitalist, not the capitalist to the town, and the attitude of the Council towards Mr. Tretheway and his associates is neither dignified nor creditable.

The consequences of any transfer of the franchise must be long, lasting and far reaching, and in my humble opinion a ratification of the contract at the present date, with this mature and insufficient consideration which the subject has had, and despite the so-called amendments made as a result of the public meeting, would be very speedily recognized as a public calamity. If Mr. Tretheway is summarily turned down by a good majority of the ratepayers, the Council would then be in this position, that they have been shown in the most convincing way that the people value their franchise highly and insist upon getting a good return for the same and unquestionable security for the reversion of the same to the town; and they can then, with their hands strengthened by this evidence of public opinion seek buyers for the franchise. There need not be the least fear that buyers cannot be found. Mr. Tretheway is not the only pebble on the beach by a very long chalk, if he can see his way clear to make money out of the venture depend upon it others can too, and a little healthy competition between various capitalists will secure to the town terms infinitely superior to those which Mr. Tretheway proposes to give.

Treating that these views of mine may influence at least a few voters against the ratification of the contract, I am Mr. Editor, Your obedient servant,
C. de W. MacDonald

SEED OATS AT FT. SASKATCHEWAN.

Joseph Lamoureux of Lamoureux settlement, opposite Ft. Saskatchewan, has brought a sample sack of oats to the Bulletin office for inspection. Mr. Lamoureux asserts that there is no good grounds for the action of the Board of Trade in procuring seed oats from the east, that oats of the sample which he shows responded to a test with 98 per cent of growing grain. The oats of the sample shown are clean and heavy. They are offered at 40 cents a bushel. Mr. Lamoureux has 1000 bushels of such grain and says that there is in the settlement 10,000 bushels of equally good quality. Admitting all that Mr. Lamoureux claims, an importation of new seed would still be a good thing.

COUNCIL MEETING

The adjourned meeting of the Edmonton city council was held in the council chamber yesterday morning.

The trouble among the city police came up for discussion and was finally referred to the police committee for settlement.

The question of engaging a city engineer was discussed and the position was finally offered to W. T. Ashbridge. He was communicated with by wire and has replied stating that he will give a definite answer to the offer the first of the week.

The sedimentation basin has been leaking and there was considerable discussion on the proper steps to be taken to stop the leakage. The question was laid over for the present.

The meeting then adjourned until Friday evening at eight o'clock.

POPLAR LAKE

On Wednesday evening Feb. 17th there was a good attendance of members at the Literary Society.

A debate was held on the subject: "Resolved that the Indian has more right to North America than the whiteman." The affirmative side was taken by Messrs. Mitchell and Shilleto, and the negative by Messrs. B. McDiarmid and McKittrick. The judges, Messrs. Donley, Wilson and Hutchings returned a verdict in favor of the affirmative.

The captains, Messrs. J. Shilleto and W. Menely called sides and those present were chosen. Others will be chosen at next meeting. Mr. Shilleto's side chose a blue badge and Mr. Menely's followers will wear a red badge.

On Wednesday, February 24th, the Literary Society held a box social at the Poplar Lake school. The program included fancy drills besides music, recitations and songs. Each lady furnished refreshments for two in a box with cups etc. The boxes were sold at 50c each to the gentlemen. The proceeds are for the school library.

PEACE RIVER SURVEYS.

Messrs. St. Cyr, Selby and Wallace, Dominion land surveyors, arrived last night to arrange for making supplies into the Peace river country before the snow goes, so as to carry on survey work during the coming summer. The sixth meridian will be run south from the point of its crossing Smoky river, and the 19th base line will also be run. This base crosses the Grand Prairie. Messrs. St. Cyr, Selby and Wallace will go north with their parties as soon as the snow leaves the ground.

BUILDING COLLAPSES

CAUSING MANY DEATHS

Partially Constructed Eleven Storey Hotel Building in New York Collapses. Laborers buried.

(Bulletin Special Despatch.) New York, March 3rd.—Nine persons are known to have been killed and about a score injured and eight or ten all of whom are believed to be dead are missing, through the collapse yesterday afternoon of the steel skeleton of a thirteen storey hotel in course of construction at 57 west forty sixth street.

The steel frame work had been erected as far as the eleventh floor and the structure was swarming with iron workers, masons and laborers. Without an instant's warning the upper floor sagged and collapsed and the whole structure fell with a crash that was heard for blocks and which shook all the buildings in the vicinity.

A portion of the steel frame fell upon the rear of hotel Patterson on the west, crushing in the wall of the dining room and killing Mrs. Storrs, the wife of Frank Storrs, a wealthy resident of Rye, Westchester county, as she was sitting at luncheon with the wife of Rev. Dr. Savage. Mrs. Savage escaped injury.

The other dead, so far as known, are Frederick Morilla, a foreigner, and three unidentified men, apparently laborers. The more seriously injured were laborers.

PROTECT MISSIONARIES

The British War Office is Making Arrangements for the Safety of Canadian Missionaries.

(Bulletin Special Despatch.) Ottawa, March 3rd. The Secretary of State received to-day a cable from Lord Strathcona saying that in view of the reported sinking of the Japanese merchant vessel, His Majesty's Minister at Seoul telegraphed Canadian Missionaries in Corea, to wait for the British men-of-war, rather than to send the women and children by Japanese vessels.

The Admiralty has since instructed the Commander in Chief of the China station to send a war ship to Song Chin for the missionaries, women and children, there, calling at Wonsan on the way.
